

STORIES OF THE PROPHETS
INTRODUCTORY LEVEL

ISA

PEACE BE UPON HIM

Isa (Jesus), peace be upon him, was a prophet sent by Allah to the people of Israel.

He was sent to clarify what Allah had made lawful and unlawful for them and to call them to worship Allah alone and to act according to His will.

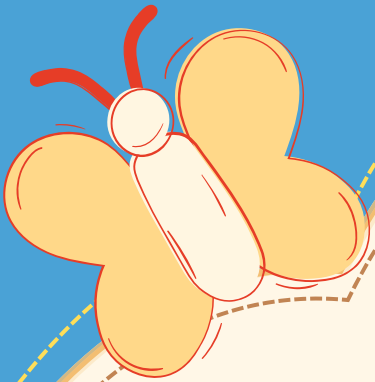

Isa was born without a father.

His mother, Maryam (Mary), peace be upon her, was a pious and devout woman.

The angels announced to her that Allah had chosen her and would grant her a son created by His word,

"Be," and he was.

This son, named the Messiah, Jesus, son of Mary, would be honored in this world and the Hereafter and would teach people the Gospel.

He would also have miracles granted by Allah, such as speaking in the cradle, raising the dead, and healing the blind and the leper, all by Allah's command and will.

Maryam conceived and gave birth to Isa. When she brought him to her people, they were shocked and questioned her about having a child without being married.

She pointed to her newborn, and Isa spoke and he was just a baby in the cradle, saying:

"I am a slave of Allah, He has given me the Scripture and made me a Prophet;"

Quran Translated Meaning 19:30-33

Despite Isa speaking in the cradle and confirming who he was, and despite witnessing the greatness of his miracles, many of his people refused to heed his call to worship
Allah sincerely.

5

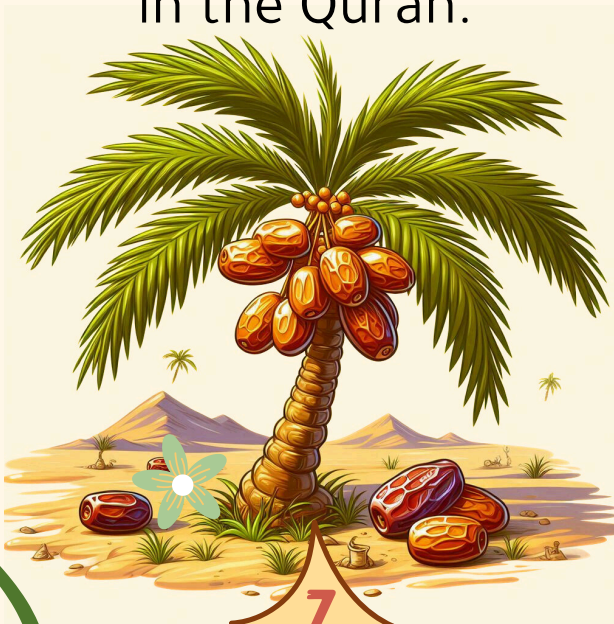

They plotted against him and planned to kill and crucify him. However, Allah raised Isa to the heavens, and they crucified someone who resembled him.

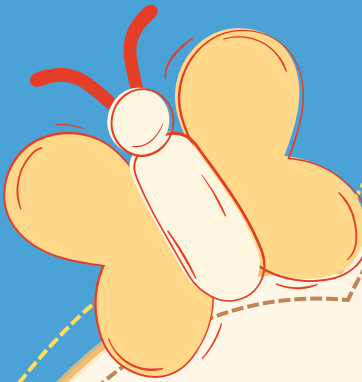

Isa will return before the Day of Judgment and follow Prophet Muhammad, peace be upon him, as the Messenger of Allah informed us.

Some people later claimed that Isa was the son of God, an assertion from which Allah is greatly exalted. These are the Christians, whom Allah warned about their misguidance in the Quran.

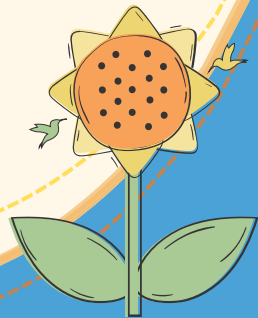

7

Isa is a prophet and a servant of Allah, created by Allah's power without a father, just as Adam, peace be upon him, was created without a father or mother.

Glory be to Allah, the One who is capable of all things.

لِلْعَالَمِينَ

STORIES OF THE PROPHETS
INTRODUCTORY LEVEL